

1000 Dollar Challenge Item #2

2) The Koran claims that its main message of guidance is clear for understanding and there is no need for interpretation. This means ordinary people can understand the message it contains, and they need no one to tell them what God is saying.

The Koran as well as the Bible is a book that is clear for understanding. In the Koran this fact is clearly stated more than 30 times. Here I will state few of these verses.

The religious leaders are mainly the people who will argue against this. They argue that they are the only people who can understand the Koran.

Koran 28:2 These are Verses of the Book that makes (things) clear
